TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

I have much pleasure in stating that Professor St. Elme de Champ has leave of absence from the University of Toronto in order to proceed to France where his family live. Professor de Champ, who is a native of France, has now been connected for over twenty years with the University of Toronto in which he is a professor. He is a gentleman held in the highest esteem, and any favours that can be shown him in order to enable him to visit France this spring will be greatly appreciated by the University.

President,
University of Toronto.
